Conſtantinople, February 5.

THE Grand Seignor has given the Regencies of Barbary to underſtand, that he would not refuſe effectually to ſuccour them, if they were attacked by any Powers whatſoever that are not in Treaty with them; but if, by their own ill Conduct, they ſhould draw on themſelves the Reſentment of any of the Powers with whom they are at Peace, he would not in that Caſe give them any Relief, but that they themſelves ſhould be anſwerable for ſuch their ill Conduct. The Grand Vizier has notified this to the Miniſters of the ſeveral Chriſtian Courts, deſiring them at the ſame Time to acquaint their Maſters, that it is the Requeſt of the Grand Seignor, that they would uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to prevent their Subjects from coming wilfully to any Diſagreement with the Regencies of Barbary.
